

1. For our application, please submit your personal portfolio, and any software design related work you may have done in the past.
2. For our application challenge, please sketch out how you would redesign an ATM for better human interaction. Please annotate your design thinking process as you go about thinking through how you would assess the current problem, current solutions, etc.}